L. Sus

STATE OF THE STATE FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF ANIMAL PRODUCTION IN UKRAINE

Article deals with the role of the state in regulating the processes occurring in the livestock industry. Directions of spending by the state budget of Ukraine to support animal husbandry are considered and their volumes during 2008-2012 are analyzed. A solution of organizational and economic problems of animal husbandry development with the financial support of the state as part of state regulation is proposed. The estimation of the dynamics of public spending and indicators of farm production is made. The influence of budgetary allocations to changing indicators of animal husbandry production is analyzed. Ways to improve the financial state support is suggested. Areas of budget support in financial and economic incentives for animal husbandry production are outlined.

Keywords: financial state support, allocations, grants, mechanism of state support, financial and economic incentives.